Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

A woman has been convicted of perjury. A good deal of sympathy undoubtedly will be lavished upon her by people who do not stop to think. These sentimental individuals who feel extremely sorry for this woman, will not stop to think that our system of justice depends upon honest testimony in the courts. Ordinary common lying in every day life is unpleasant and reprehensible. When a lie is given under oath, however, in court, it may, and sometimes does, defeat justice. Judges who sit on the bench will privately admit that perjury is far more common on the witness stand than most people would dream. What is uncommon is that a perjurer is convicted. It is a crime which is usually difficult of proof. This woman convicted of lying under oath, will richly deserve the fate she has brought down upon herself. For it is only by making an example of persons who perjure themselves that any standard of justice can be maintained.

The President's Ball, for the benefit of the little victims of infantile paralysis at Warm Springs, Georgia, should receive the hearty support of all citizens who can afford to give anything toward a splendid cause. The President's ball has nothing whatever to do with the Democratic, Republican or Prohibitionist parties. It is a great charity event sponsored by the President of the United States, who himself is a victim of the dread malady.

Memory runs back many years to the time the Democratic National Convention was held in San Francisco, and a Democrat, a Mr. Cox, was nominated. (Really it is a feat of memory to have remembered the name of this Democratic nominee.) Active in the convention was a young man wearing a natty straw hat and wonderfully tailored suit of clothes, a young man with an infectious smile, a gay laugh, a persuasive manner, and a host of friends. At that time he had the robust carriage of an athlete, his arms and legs were as powerful as those of the average miner in Nevada County. It was years later that infantile paralysis crippled and gave him a life-long physical handicap. But his mind shines out clearly and steadily above the wreckage, caused by this disease. His gaiety, happy good humor, and optimistic outlook on life have survived. It is a pleasure to commend this great benefit for the little sufferers of this plague, which our President has instituted in poignant remembrance of his own experience.

A bulletin from the National Emergency council states that since May, 1935, until December 31, 1935, total of $100,866,294 has been spent in California through the office of the California Director of Relief. Of this $2,030,856 has been spent for administration. This would not be regarded as excessive in almost any kind of business. We doubt if any large corporation in California can equal the record. The net result of the expenditure is hard to estimate, but on WPA projects in California 158,828 persons were employed, it was shown, on December 28, 1935, and a total of $66,000,000 has been expended for direct relief. Into conservation work of the CCC has gone the sum of $16,728,724. The rest of the hundred million has gone for such items as $7,500,000 for materials used in construction of roads and buildings etc., recreational facilities $5,500,000, direct educational facilities $1,300,000, and $9,484,338, for WPA labor. It goes without saying that much of the work done will serve as a partial bulwark against the rising tide of taxes which is to come.

The American Liberty league which is now actively functioning with envenomed energy through bulletins to the press, sends an article captioned "New Deal Blows $230 a Second." Sounds very alarming but we restrain our shudders for something more serious, which is another headline running: "800,000 on New Deal Rolls." That really give us pause, because we know how difficult it will be for either a Democratic or Republican administration in 1937 to separate any of that 800,000 from the "rolls." Once an office holder has sucked in tax money as a way of living, he is as hopeless of cure as a victim of sleeping sickness. The increase in the Federal employes, since Roosevelt took office is 236,000.

To show how reluctant the enrollees on the Federal payroll are to get off, it is a fact that although the NRA was knocked in the head by the Supreme Court in May, there are still over a thousand NRA employes drawing Federal money. Recently AAA has also received its nunc demittus by the same elderly choir. There has been nary movement in Washington thus to fire the thousands employed in its administration.

NEVADA CITY A TEAM DEFEATS GRASS VALLEY

(By BEN SWEENEY)

Overcoming a lead gained by their opponents in the second quarter, the Nevada City high A team fought through to a 28-27 victory Friday night over the Grass Valley A quinfet at Armory Hall. Spectators were on their feet throughout the last three minutes of the game during which time Ray Wilde, local forward, sank the basket that won the game. Grass Valley fought furiously to drop just one more through the hoop, but the Yellowjackets were as anxious to hold the lead and managed to keep the visitors from gaining ground.

The A contest had been predicted a Nevada City victory, but with a 4 to 4 score at the end of the first quarter, the locals found the going a bit tougher than expected. Dropping back at the beginning of the second quarter, the Nevada City boys left the floor at half time with a 17 to 11 score marked up in Grass Valley's favor. The third ended 25 to 20, the Miners still in front; but it remained for the final quarter to alter what appeared to be victory for the visitors. The locals settled down to fast and furious playing minus unnecessary flourishes and scored eight points before the final gun, while the Miners chalked up but one more basket.

The men who saw action in the contest for Nevada City, and their points, follow: Wilde 10, Lopez 5, Elliott 4, Stevens 2, Santinelli 2, Doolittle, Perez.

Despite the energetic activity of seven Nevada City yell-leaders, the local B's lost their contest to the visiting B squad with a 38 to 22 score. Lack of adequate reserve material in this division has been the reason for the lack of wins this season. The five men who started for the B's and perhaps one reserve, play a good grade of basketball. It would be difficult to mention any particular player among these half dozen as starring, although Schiffner, fast and tricky, was high point man with eight to his credit.

Those who played and their points wre: Schiffner 8, Brown 4, Mullis 3, Bennett 2, Organ 2, Harding 2, Gates 1, Clark, Bonner.

The Nevada City high band played several snappy tunes between games and during half times. The hall was packed, the attendance being the largest at a basketball contest this season.

TOWNSEND CLUB GIVES ENJOYABLE PROGRAM

An enthusiastic meeting of the French Corral Townsend Club, No. 1 was held at French Corral school house Sunday afternoon, Miles Tilden, president, presided. The business of the club was conducted, officers and the different committes reports were given. The publicity committee extended its earnest thanks to the local newspapers for their interest manifested.

The musical program was furnished by Hugo M. Hellgran and wife with two very excellent violin solos rendered. Also Miss Hazel Tilden, Clara Kessler and Elaine Kessler, sang two songs with Jack Kessler accompauying with harmonica. A beautiful poem entitled Spring of 1903 was read by Katherine Braithwaite, author, of her own production. An article of a speech by Edna M. Margett entitled "Victory" was read by the president.

It gave an encouraging outlook of the future movement of the Townsend measure. During a short recess the refreshment committee, Mrs. Washburne, chairman, furnished a delicious luncheon of cake, doughnuts and coffee made by the club's chef. The club will meet at San Juan school house Sunday afternoon, Jan. 26. The membership and interest is increasing as manifested at the meeting and a hearty welcome will be given to all friends and visitors.

NO TRACE OF NEWMAN BROS. YET REPORTED

Up to the time of going to press no information regarding the whereabouts of the Newman brothers, Monte and Merritt, wanted by the sheriff for questioning in connection with the murder of Christian Meyer, Sunday morning a week ago, was available. Sheriff Tobiassen yesterday went to Marysville on tip that the brothers had been seen in that vicinity, but it is reported nothing developed.

The Newman brothers, who had been rustling at the Idaho-Maryland mine disappeared Wednesday. Their mother reported that they had hitchhiked to Alleghany in search of work. It later developed that they had two cars, one of which, left in the garage at their home in Grass Valley is reported to answer the general description of the car used by the slayer of Meyer. Their mother also stated that they had possessed a shotgun, but that it had been stolen from the garage.

The State Bureau of Criminal Identification was enlisted in the hunt for the two missing men.

UNCLE SAM AIDS REHABILITATION OF RURAL FOLKS

Pigs may be pigs to some folks, but to John Smith, Glenn County farmer, they were just a headache with a squeal.

Farmer Smith owned 80 two months old pgs which were growing larger and hungrier day by day. Earning $53 a month on a relief job he had a hard enough time feeding himself and family, to say nothing of the hungry horde.

It was a grave crisis in his life. He could remain on relief and sell th pigs. He could walk off the 40-acre farm and take to the road, as so many discouraged farmers have done.

But Farmer Smith did neither, because he is the sort of old-fashioned American citizen who can't be licked because he won't be. Instead, he applied to the Rural Rehabilitation Division of the Resettlement Administration for a loan. The loan was granted. Although not a good risk by strict bank standards, he was the sort of a man the Resettlement Administration likes to help.

With his loan of $690 Farmer Smith bought feed for the pigs. The hog ranch flourished. Hogs literally over-ran the land. New and hungry piggies appeared with startling regularity.

A relief worker not long before, Farmer Smith now found himself looking into the future with hopeful eyes. Returns began to come in from the sale of hogs. Within a few months he had paid off $300 of the oirginal loan.

But he needed more capital if the hog ranch was to be placed on a sound foundation. The county rehabilitation supervisor, pleased with Farmer Smith's fine showing, recommended a new loan of $2200. Of this sum $1500 went for feed, the balance for a new shed.

Today, Farmer Smith's hog ranch is a going concern. Out of his earnings he is rapidly reducing his debt. The ugly spectre of poverty has been banished. Most important of all, his faith in himself has been restored.

His is one of hundreds of actual cases listed in the California office of the Rural Rehabilitation Division of the Resettlement Administration in Berkeley. according to Earl Maharg, State Director of the Division. Only the name has been changed.

NO TIME EXTENSION ON AUTOMOBILE FEES

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.—Fact, not threat, today was bringing California motorists to realization they must obtain 1936 registation number plates prior to midnight January 30 or pay 100 per cent penalty on vehicle license fees.

"This is the first registration renewal period in which the state is operating under a vehicle code that definitely sets a time limit for collecting fees," explained Ray Ingels, director of motor vehicles, in warning motorists there can be no extension of time for obtaining plates without payment of double fees.

All California Highway Patrol offices are registering vehicles to augment service of department of motor vehicles offices and automobile clubs, and Ingels has ordered each office to remain open until 5 p. m. Saturdays during renewal period.

BIRTHDAY BALL IS NON PARTISAN BENEFIT EVENT

(By CHRISTIAN ANDERSON)

In joint assembly today in Richmond, Virginia the Virginia legislature paid special tribute to Gen. Robert E. Lee the great confederate general.

The speaker who eulogized this great southerner stressed character as the indestructible heritage of man regardless of political affiliation. This attribute he said would eventually bring America out of the present morass incident to the economic struggle through which we are passing, he said that characters like that of General Lee transcended all party lines and functioned only for the benefit of his countrymen.

So it seems to me any public benefit must of necessity be drawn away from all sectional or political association. Therefore although the President's birthday ball in a sense honors our present incumbent in the White House, the object to be attained, that of fighting the scourge, infantile paralysis, is the main objective of the 5000 birthday balls given in the United States for the third consecutive year. This year again Grass Valley and Nevada City are giving their share toward this gigantic benefit for the eradication of the most terrible disease of man, for on January 30 in the veterans memorial hall in Grass Valley will be held a president's birthday ball. Seventy per cent of the proceeds stay in this community for use of our own citizens and only 30 per cent goes to the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation for the extension of research and increased facilities. As formerly there will be a deluxe show preceding the ball for those who do not dance.

In a day or so some of the committees will call on citizens to buy a ticket for this years birthday ball.

Francis Finnegan, Betty Martin West, Fred Conner, John Fortier and Christian Anderson make up the Nevada City committee.

COUNCIL WILL MEET WITH CITY HALL ARCHITECT

The city council is soon to meet with the architect and Frank Marsh regarding the new city hall WPA project. Marsh is WPA director for this district. The new city hall to cost $22,000 is to stand where present city hall stands and to occupy the vacant lot to the north of the old city hall. The double site extends through the block to Spring street and affords ample room for the building which will include rooms and facilities for the fire department. After the building is completed it is expected that the two old buildings and the lots now used by the fire department will be sold to help pay the city's share in financing the new city hall.

Miss Fernande Muller of this city spent Saturday in Sacramento shopping.

L. R. Robins of Austin, Nevada, who has been general manager of the Austin Silver Mining company, is reported to have resigned from that position.

TOWNSEND CLUB LEADER REPLIES TO CRITICISM

North San Juan, Jan. 19, 1936.

Nevada City Nugget,

Dear Editor:

Under heading of "Why Not Try Out the Townsend Plan in Nevada County," published in the Nevada City Nugget dated January 13, 1936, one notices a marked lack of forethought and a total disregard of facts.

The Townsend Plan was drafted to take care of a particular situation involving 125-million people engaged in a highly diversified production, the 20 billion dollars to be circulated under the Townsend Plan will be spent in purchasing all of the various commodities produced in all parts of the country.

In order for the plan to operate successfully in any one county, it would be necessary to produce all of the things possible to buy with $200 a month in that one county or at least balance the county imports and exports to a ratio of our present Federal imports and exports.

A few minutes of thought will show anyone that no one county or even state can line entirely within itself; that all counties and all states are dependent upon each other. We are using things produced in all the other states and they are all using things produced in California. Our whole system is built around this co-operative trading.

Since the Townsend Plan was intended to cover the whole nation, it would be about as sensible to try it in one small community as to install a 500 ton stamp mill on property where the ore production was 20 tons a day, or to use a 5 yard steam shovel to clean out your cellar. The stamp mill or the shovel would work satisfactorily at a job they were designed and intended for—so will the Townsend Plan.

Our records of the last few years fairly stink with all sorts of plans to balance production and consumption, running from small communities to gigintic federal wastes, all based on the poverty idea of subsistence incomes.

With half of our industry engaged in the production of luxuries and non-essentials, that is things that we can get along entirely without, it can readily be seen that to keep these industries operating it is necessary to keep the consuming public on more than subsistence incomes.

As to confusiong money with value: Let's take the facts:

Money is only a yard stick for measuring value or wealth—Our real basic national income is what we are able to produce in commodities, selling and ultimate consumption in order to keep on operating.

The reason our national income has shrunk so tremendously is because we are supporting over 20-millions on non productive work or dole, whereas with the Townsend Plan these 20 million people will go back into production producing the things that the 20 billions annual turnover in Townsend money will be spent for—and thereby increase our national income by 20 million man power—the only significant point in the money being that it must buy back for ultimate consumption what is produced, whether it is at the rate of one dollar a day or one dollar an hour.

The Townsend Plan of $200 per month was drafted to conform with our present exchange rate between money and commodities, and with a Townsend Plan stabilized nation there will be little fluxuation, and what there is can be taken care of as we get to it. Progress demands that we change certain details of our governmental policies each year. That's what we have a congress for.

Production of commodities is the important thing—the method of getting the necessary money into circulation is of secondary importance, but since all of the plans that have been offered and tried by our so-called economists have only resulted in putting the country into a chaotic condition and confined 20 million of our people to relief rolls, it's high time that the American people commence to think for themselves.

An important and intelligent study of the Townsend Plan will convince anyone of average intelligence that it is America's only salvation.

As to the Editor's note on the tax rate, may I suggest that he spend 10 minutes going over a few lines of the plan as to taxation methods provided.

It certainly does not call for increasing the regular tax rate—but rather it will decrease the rate after it has been in operation for awhile.

Yours,

H. A ROBINSON,

North San Juan.

(Editor's Note: It is quite true that the Townsend believers do not propose to raise this enormous sum from ordinary taxes on real and personal property. But that does not alter the fact, if Nevada County were to raise its pro rata for the payment of $200 per month pensions to its pro rata of those over 60 years of age, now in this county, a sum which would approximate $3,600,000 for Nevada County alone, would have to be provided. Taxes, whether paid as sales taxes, taxes on real estate, or incomes, or on bank checks, or on all transactions as proposed by the Townsendites, must come from the tax payers. We submit that $3,600,000 would be a very large order for Nevada County, and that the comparison between that sum, and the $260,000 now paid in taxes is a fair comparison. Where do we gain anything, if the $3,600,000 distributed to the 60 year olds in Nevada County has to go right back into the tax fund again?)

Banner Mt. Post. V. F. W., members have received the sad news of the sudden deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gelatte, of Sacramento, yesterday. While riding on Honcut Creek, north of Marysville, they failed to make a turn in the road which was hidden by a small hill, the car turning over twice landing upside down in floodwater at the roadside and drowning both. Mr. and Mrs. Gelatte were industrious workers in veterans affairs. They visited Nevada City recently when Mr. Gelatte acted as installing officer for the local veterans placing Major Leroy Delaney, in office as commander, and his newly appointed officers, in office.

Observe The Record

On Monday night, January the thirteenth, a fire broke out in the Nevada City theatre. There was no panic; the audience sat quietly while the alarm was turned in and waited without excitement until the firemen responded and subdued the blaze.

If I were a fireman, I should look upon that event as a unanimous vote of confidence, and take a bow. As a mere citizen I wish to say that such confidence is not misplaced. As Al Smith would say, "look at the record."

And so the Democrats have chosen the City of Brotherly Love for their convention arena. And significance in that? I think so. They would hardly be so rude as to stage a bitter party row in the very presence of the Liberty Bell and other sturdy fundamentals for which the Quaker City is so deservingly noted. Serenity and harmony of purpose will mark every session of that gathering; and won't that be something unique in our political history?

Is Mr. Hoover a huromist? Of course he is. He has constructed many a joke that will go whiffling down the corridors of time and win for him a niche in the Temple of Fame beside those occupied by such famous wits as J. Billings, P. Nasby, and I. Cobb.

Remember that jest about "two chickens in every pot and two cars in each garage?" Well we were so busy just at that time examining two holes in every pocket that we thought the man was in earnest. That's the trouble, we don't get Mr. Hoover's jokes the first time—they go right over our heads. Now here's a hint at parting,

To save both life and limbs,
When driving cars these winter nights,
For cat's sake, douse your glims.

A. MERRIAM CONNER.

GOOD SERVICE COSTS NO MORE

A modern establishment—a trained, intelligent and courteous personnel — distinctive motor equipment and other evidences of progress and prosperity are NOT an indication that funeral service charges will be high. A successful concern can be built only by serving honestly and well, at prices that are fair and reasonable.

JAN. RAIN TOTAL IS 16.35 INCHES

Nevada City has had 16.35 inches of rain for the month of January and 26.99 for the season according to measurements made last evening. The record shows one inch over normal.

Bob Ruth came in from the Deer Creek power house east of Nevada City last week in his car. He said there was very little snow left as warm rains had been melting the snow.

Reports from Downieville area state warm rains have been falling almost steadily for the last two weeks and the snow has melted. Some slides of earth and rock are reported on the Downieville highway.

Fred Garrison, divisional superintendent of highways, has been kept busy in the Marysville area with flood waters for the last few days.

The snow plows have been out lately on the Yuba Pass where over six feet of snow is on the ground, but the road is open. Two were out on the Tahoe Ukiah keeping the road clear of new snow.

APPEAL FROM JUDGMENT

John Muschetto, defendant, through his attorneys, Jones and Finnegan, has filed, in the superior court, an appeal from judgment. Judgment was awarded in the justice court of Nevada Township by Judge W. L. Mobley in the sum of $189.92 and $4.00 costs in favor of Richard Haddy, who through his attorney, W. E. Wright, brought action against Muschetto to recover the sum of $224 alleged to be due the plaintiff for services rendered and trucking.

Mrs. Elliott Syms, who has spent the holidays with her mother and other relatives in Kingman, Arizona returned last week. While away she enjoyed a trip to Boulder Dam where the first of the fifteen giant 82,500 kilowatt ampere generators has just been installed in the power house.

Fantaisie-Impromptu and Scherzo, B-flat minor. Fr. Chopin.
